CRIMINAL CASE 94-00061-CB

DON LEONARD SCOTT

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO COMPEL
GOVERNMENT OF IDENTIFY INVESTIGATING OFFICERS

Doc. 36
cert. of service

May it please the Court:

This matter is currently pending before this Court on the motion of the accused to suppress evidence obtained from him in violation of his rights under Fourth, Fifth, or Sixth Amendment rights of the federal constitution, 18 U.S.C. § 2510, et seq., and F.R.Cr.P. Rule 41. Due to number of investigating officers, from the Federal Bureau of Investigations, the Mobile City Police and possibly from other law enforcement agencies, it is impossible for the accused to identify all of the law enforcement personnel involved. It is essential that in order to enforce his rights, including those above-mentioned and his right of confrontation and others, that these identities be provided to the accused by the United States.

Respectfully submitted:
